On the Cover

Tru-Hill Farm is located just north of Lebanon, Indiana. We are a small family run farm on approximately 20 acres. Tom and Blythe Burns own the farm along with their 13 children. Anita Burns, your 2010 Indiana Pinto Princess along with her sister Mauda show at our Indiana Pinto shows. Jake Snyder, the oldest of 13 and his wife Stacey live next door and share in the horse show experiences with the children.

We raise and show not only horses on our farm, but chickens, geese, donkeys, rabbits, and miniature horses.

Our Boone County 4-H fair is taking place now where the Burns children have shined. Anita won Champion Pony under 56 inches and was also crowned Master Showman in her showmanship class with Sassy. She gets to represent the horse and pony project in our Supreme Showmanship contest this coming week. Anita was also 4th in her western pleasure class with Cracker. Mauda showed her pony Two-Bits and also had a very successful week.

Many ribbons were won in the rabbit barn as well with Lennea, Rosa, Tesla, Oscar, Albany, and Jonathan. Lennea is showing her poultry as we speak.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone in the Indiana Pinto club for opening your hearts to us as this is only our second year showing Pinto. We enjoy each and every one of you. You have all helped our show seasons run smoothly and taught us all so very much. Hope you all are having a great summer and we look forward to seeing you all very soon. Please come visit us at our website www.tru-hill.com

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT:

I would like to take this opportunity to say welcome to all our new members. We're glad to have you aboard.

Congratulations to our Queen Chelysie VanDever for being 1st runner up in the National Queen Contest. Also, to Gracie Ingle for bringing home 11 belt buckles from the World Show. What an accomplishment. Just remember you can't wear them all at once and don't sign too many autographs. We're very proud of you both.

The Jubilee Show was a success with 67 horses and 490 entrees. I would like to thank all the volunteers who helped set up and tear down, set up and tear down, set up and tear down for the jumping, trail and obstacle driving. Thanks to Sherrin Ann Davis for running the gate so smoothly and keeping everyone on track and for a great job on the stick horse classes. They had 5 entrees, each entrée had a stick horse which they raced down to a bucket filled with numbered ducks which they raced back to pick up the goodie bag with the matching number.

Just a reminder, your show bucks that you earned last year, have to be used at our upcoming September show. Use them or lose them. Also, we will have another carry-in supper Saturday night with a short meeting before the dinner.

Don't forget the Trail Ride the following Saturday, September 25th. If you have never did the trail ride, you are missing a great time! Even if you don't trail ride, come and enjoy the food and good company.

Sincerely,
Jim Yagel
President

HORSE TALES 2010

Show News:

It's time for the EAST CENTRAL PINTO JUBILEE at New Castle, Indiana. We will need help with the gate and in all area's where you can help. This is a big show and we need all the help we can get. We will have other clubs helping so let's show them a good time and have a great show.

Club news:

In club news, due to changes at the national level, we will no longer have a Queen or Princess program, however, Mrs. Barb Vonderohe is working on a possible Scholarship for all of our youth to have a chance to compete for. The Board and Officers are awaiting more information on this and it may take a while, but until then we have dismissed our Royalty program so that we are in compliance with the national rules on this issue.

Tidbits from IPtHA:

We will have a carry-in supper and a club meeting at the show following the last class on Saturday. The time will be announced at the show, so come and join the fun. We forgot to thank Milly Drinski for making the blanket for the Rochester show. Milly also donated a blanket for the queen auction at the World Show for Chelysie to take. Also a big thank you to Sherrin Ann Davis for her donations and work providing the youth with the stick horse project. Thank you so much Milly & Sherrin Ann for all your thoughtfulness.

New IPtHA Members:

Be sure to welcome all the new IPtHA Members into the Indiana Pinto Family! It is great seeing all the new faces at the show.

Condolences:

We need to send condolences to long time IPtHA member and PtHA Judge Janet Shank Keesling for the loss of her daughter Lauri. IPtHA sends our deepest condolences to the family.
