Howdy,

It’s May and still raining. Ready or not it’s show time!

Our first show was very successful with 46 horses and 442 entries. It was great to see a lot of new faces and old ones. Despite the rain everyone seemed to have a great time. I would like to thank those who helped set up on Saturday night. I also would like to give a big thanks to Jean, Val, Vanessa and families for the great food we enjoyed on Friday night.

We had an outstanding turn out for our dinner and General Membership Meeting on Saturday night and I would like to thank everyone who attended.

Congratulations to Caitlin Vonderohe and Sarah Ruth Egel who graduated from Purdue. If you missed the after party on Saturday night, ask Caitlin and Sarah about their “Special Diplomas.”

It’s time to move on to the East Central Pinto Jubilee, August 6 and 7 at New Castle, IN. We will be having a pitch-in dinner on Saturday night with a short General Membership Meeting afterwards.

Good luck to everyone who is planning on going to the Pinto World Show!

At our next show, look for our new “mascot” (Gucci) who we have nicknamed Bacon.

Wishing all of you a successful and fun show season!

NAME THE TWINS CONTEST

Thanks to all of you that took the time to enter the "Name The Twins" Contest at Hoosier Horse Fair. Although there were some very good suggestions, we have finally decided on the winners. We chose a boy name as the winner, although we liked two of the girl names.

Our choice for best name was:

MILTON BRADLEY - submitted by Cheryl Ann Walls

Our choice for 2nd place was tied...

LIL MISS JAILBIRD - submitted by Christina Haehn
LIL MISS MONIQUE - submitted by Abby Kelsey

Should the first place winner choose to forfeit their chance to breed to MR MONOPOLY, we will draw between the 2 second place winners.

Our first choice for names were Nick Nack & Paddie Whack, unfortunately both names were already in use with Paint and Pinto! These were names that we had come up with ourselves.

Thanks again for "playing Monopoly" with us.

FIRST SHOW UPDATE AND NEW NEWS

Wow it’s hard to believe that the first show of the 2011 IPtHA show year is over!! Well old Mother Nature was kind to us on Saturday however Sunday was very cold and rainy but being true to our love of showing, everyone hung in there and we had a great show. The IPtHA club would like to thank all the true diehard’s who stayed and showed on Sunday. Super job everyone!!!

We would like to thank Jean (Nana) Poyser and her 2 daughters Vanessa Davidsen and Valerie Wietfeldt for the wonderful supper they had for all exhibitors on Friday night and to all the other members who donated cookies and other food. We feel that this is a great way to make everyone feel welcome and to enjoy a meal. With all the work of getting it ready and after a long haul to get it to the show we hope everyone enjoyed the supper.

On Saturday the youth kids had an Egg and Spoon Race with horses and without horse. The kids are raising money to help send one of them to the National Pinto Convention. The classes cost $1.00 and are open to everyone young and not so young. The winner of the Egg and Spoon Race with horses was Jack Brush. The winner of the Egg and Spoon Race without a horse was Grace Ingle. However the rules of the contest were stretched a little by someone who will remain name less. (Right Mr. President) So needless to say everyone had a good laugh not only the contestants but the cheering section also. The youth also had a Halter that they sold raffle tickets on throughout weekend. This money also goes to help the kids with their actives, the big winner was Tony Yagel (congratulation Tony).
We had a carry-in dinner on Saturday night and boy did we have great food. You all out did yourselves. After dinner we had a special presentation to your very own PRUDUE GRADUATES CAITLIN VONDEROHE AND SARAH RUTH EGEL, who did not go to the graduation so that they could come and show horses with us. We had special diplomas for both girls and each received a sash to wear. We are so very proud of both girls.

Following the dinner and graduation party we had a short membership meeting. During the meeting we were informed that loud noise that was heard at the fair grounds was not a small child screaming but the new IPtHA mascot. That's right we have a member of the club that some of us fondly call “BACON”. I've been told that the real name is “GUCCI” have you guessed who our new mascot is yet? That’s right it’s a pot belly pig, Chris and Raeni Dumford are the proud owners. Make sure you stop by and say HI to Bacon. (Editors error the name is Gucci.)

The show results are posted on the Indiana Pinto web site please look at them and make sure they are right. Also keep track of your points by using the web site. Joe and the office staff have started using the new computer system and we are just asking if you see something that is not right to let him know so we can fix it.

This annual award was originally sponsored by the Robert Howard family of Indian Rock Acres, Franklin, Indiana. 2. A nominee must be 18 or under, not having reached their 19th birthday by January 1 of the current year.
3. The youth must be nominated by a current member of IPtHA.
4. Send only one nomination per family.
5. A youth may win this award an unlimited number of times.
6. The Traveling Trophy for this award is not to be retired by any youth.
7. An individual award will be given to the winner each year for them to keep.
8. In the event of a tie, duplicate awards will be given.
