Have a GREAT summer and we will see you at the SHOW!!!
Love -- Lou, Jeanine and Krissy Fairfield

President's Letter

At the Rochester Show this past weekend, I was reminded of what a great club and members we have here in Indiana. Everyone pitched in to make the show run smoothly and on time. First and foremost a HUGE thank you, which of course does not do justice, to Joe, Barb, Deb, Val, Annette, Wynetta and Lou for running the office and show ring. Also a big shout out to Rex and all of his crew on keeping the arena in tip top shape, as well as assisting the judges. We couldn't hold a show without any of these folks in place. I need to again say thanks to Jim and all of his help for setting up the trail, jumping and hunter classes. There is no job too big for that group.

We had plenty of sunshine along with some dirt, dust and heat which certainly gave us all pause to give thanks to God for keeping away the rain. Our welcome diner was much appreciated for those that got in a bit later than normal or just needed to grab a bite to eat. Many expressed what a nice gesture this was from our club members. Of course the Saturday night carry-in had the normal amount of food, friends and chatting that so many of us look forward to during the off season. We were able to catch up with old friends, as well as welcome some new ones.

Our General Membership meeting had input by many on several different topics. We discussed our Shoot Out, the upcoming Jubilee Show, as well as several other topics you may read in the minutes. I pointed out, that you all need to start deciding whom you would like to vote in when my Presidency is over at the end of this year. There are many great members that would and could do a wonderful job, it's not too early to start the process.

We also learned that our dear friend Deloris Greenlee is fighting her battle once again. Our prayers as always are with her, along with Don and her family.

See you in August at New Castle. As always, this is YOUR club, any ideas, input or suggestions, send them my way.

Pony Tales

Pete's Rescue

As told by, Cheryl Ann Walls (or at least this is the way "I" saw it)

This is the story of one brave, never give up person, hereafter known as Pete Thornton aka "the Hero", and the victim he saved, known just as "Tiny Kitty".

While at the recent Findlay, Ohio Show, a panic broke out in the parking area. It seems that a tiny kitten had been heard crying desperately in the distance under a truck. While everyone that heard it, felt their hearts race and tears come to their eyes, (ok a little bit dramatic), no one could find out where it was coming from.

Suddenly, the location of the trapped kitty was revealed!! In the spare tire, hanging by whatever wire Wes Lauster could come up with while trying to keep the spare tire and muffler from dragging on the ground, was a trapped kitty. Yes! We all could see the tiny paws and hear the pitiful cry, but no one could come up with the "plan".

Now enters our Hero, Pete Thornton, to the rescue! With fly swatter in hand (accompanied by his daughter Julie to handle such an instrument and granddaughter plus a number of friends, by stander or general spectators,) brave Pete crawled beneath the truck. Nothing but grit to do the job, he wore no gloves in case Tiny Kitty decided to scratch, bite or run away. But that wouldn't hinder our hero. Poking here and there, tugging on paws and finally coaxing Tiny Kitty to the only hole. Our brave Pete stuck in his hand and out came the victim. Since there was no Mama in sight, we discovered that the Tiny Kitty must have been in there since Wes and Carol Lauster left their farm in Indiana, riding almost 2 ½ hours in the spare tire.

The only thing left to do, get a bottle, some replacer milk, and hand it off to Wes to feed and well, you know do the Mama kitty duties until the show was over. Which I must state, he did a fantastic job.

P.S. Tiny Kitty returned home safely, none the less for a bit of adventure where Mama promptly took him back. Pete Thornton recovered nicely from one bruised arm and a few scratches. All is safe and well.

Thanks to our HERO, Pete!

Little Bit and Alex Yagel did an afternoon of show and tell at Lincoln Elementary School, Huntington In., on Friday May 24th. Little Bit was a big hit with 80 kids.

Darken: The Scaredy-Cat Champion.

Darken is a quirky little pleasure type pinto horse who is exceptionally timid, quick as a cat, and apparently smarter than anyone ever imagined. With 40 years of training experience under her belt, his owner, Jan Sharp, expected him to be her crowning achievement - both as a trick horse and show horse. Instead, Darken sees horse-eating monsters behind every bush, suffers medical emergencies, and does his best to frustrate her at every turn. All that changes the day Darken walks out of his stall and proves just how smart he really is. As Darken works to overcome his many challenges, Jan is rewarded by watching him blossom. Suitable for all ages, especially for those who face challenges in their own lives.

Jan Sharp is the author of Darken: The Scaredy-Cat Champion and has been a member of Ohio Pinto for many years and has shown at a number of our own Indiana shows over the years. She is the author of a new true story horse book. The horse in the book is a pinto and two of the chapters tell about his experiences at the Pinto World Show. Darken is also a Pinto Reserve World Champion. Available from Amazon.com in both e-book and paperback. 47 photos which journal the first five years of Darken's unusual life- from foal to champion.

Hoosier Horse Fair 2013 <http://hoosierhorsefair.org/eblasts/footer2013.jpg>

Aaron Ralston is an All around horseman and competitor in disciplines such as Reining, Roping, sorting, versatility and reined cowhorse. However, most people know him as the former Host of the popular RFD-TV show "The Ride with Aaron Ralston".

In his competition events he has won multiple world, reserve World and Regional Championships. His foundation comes from a childhood of working on his family ranch and rodeoing, however, his arena education has developed thanks in part to NRHA Hall of Fame trainer Doug Milholland whom Aaron worked for/with for many years. Since his early days Aaron says there are too many mentors to mention that have helped him develop his own personal "Style".

Aaron's "Style" is built on a few fundamental principals that help provide our horses a reason for why we interact with them in a completely unnatural manner. Some of Aaron's awards/achievements include leading team USA to the Reining Gold Medal at the 2006 World Equestrian Games in Aachen Germany while later winning the individual Bronze. 2011 saw him win the H3 horsemans colt starting challenge in Brandon Manitoba, Canada. In 2012 Aaron rode Spendin Peptos Money to two top five placings at the NRCHA world show.

Later in 2012 after returning to full time training and competing, Aaron attended the AQHA region 7 Championships where he took home the Jr. Reining, Sr. reining, Sr. Cowhorse, Sr. Heading, Sr. Calf roping championships as well as reserve Ranch Pleasure, reserve Sr. Heeling, and Reserve Sr. Calf roping championships. These accomplishments resulted in winning the High Point All around Championship on King of the Hen House and the reserve High point championship riding Cutter Cutter.

Aaron enjoys Writing for magazines such as Performance Horse Digest and has been a featured subject multiple times in Western Horseman, The AQHA Journal, Quarter Horse News and the NRHA Reiner. In 2010 Aaron Co-authored the book "Ride-Up" with Dr. Edgel Franklin Pyles.
