Howdy, winter is over. Let's clean up some horses, saddles and boots. Fuel up, hook up, its show time!

Well it's Hoosier Horse Fair Time! A big thank you to Dick and Sandee Alma and Autumn Kinser for representing Indiana Pinto on Stallion Row. Also a big thank you to Gracie Ingle for representing Indiana Pinto in the Breed Demonstration. I will be at the booth and look forward to seeing you there.

We have had an outstanding turn out for our board meetings. I would like to thank everyone who has attended.

Our next Board meeting will be April 17 at Kokomo Pizza Hut, the General membership is welcome.

Our first Indiana Pinto Show will be May 14 and 15 at Rochester, Indiana.

Just a quick reminder, if you have not paid your Indiana Pinto dues, now's the time. And don't forget to get your high point nomination in before the first show.

Wishing you all a successful and fun show season!

Important Information Coming Your Way!!

As I am seated in front of my computer and watch it snow once again! I really wish that I could go visit with Joe and Barbara Grissom in a nice warm place. But that's not going to happen so, I guess I had better get to work and tell you all about the new news we have for you.

First and most important that this will be your last issue of the Banner if you have not paid your membership to IPtHA. This is also the last email Banner you will receive if your membership is not paid. See this issue of the banner for Membership renewal forms.

Just a reminder that Hoosier Horse Fair is fast approaching. We hope that you stop by and see us at the booth. Stop by Stallion Row to see our proud Pinto stallions. Then zip over to the coliseum to see our breed demo pony in action.

We would like to ask you all for help during the shows, we have lots of jobs that you can help with. We need card runners; drink runner for the ring staff, helping in the make up arena would be great. Jim and the ring crew always can use help in setting up trail and jumping. All you need to do is ask Jim or any officer I am sure that we will gladly put you to work. Remember this is your club and all the work goes much faster and easier if we work together.

At the February meeting several items were covered and many committees made reports, see this issue for meeting minutes. A big Thank You to all IPtHA members who attended and supported the White Elephant Sale & Auction. The Auction raised a record $1,221.50. Alison Mendenhall won the 50/50 raffle and donated it back to the club. Alex Yagel sold eggs and donated $5.00 to the club. There are still 3 Banner Covers for sale, June-July, August-September and October-November.

Now For The Big News

The Breyer Company has announced that TS BLACK TIE AFFAIR is their new model horse. He will be out at the midsummer release. Black Tie will be at the Equine Affaire in April and at BreyerFest in KY in July. For those of you who do not know about Black Tie Affair he is owned by Jan Sharp who is very active in the Pinto World. Jan and Black Tie have received 22 Pinto World and Reserve World Championships. He was a 2 time Pinto World Show Hi-Point Pleasure Type champion winning 2 trophy saddles.

He has 30 ROM and ROE awards in all events. Along with over 3800+ Pinto show points. As if that was not enough he is the star of a book called "Trick Training Your Horse to Success." written by Jan Sharp. Black Tie has been seen on TV and featured in many magazines. Black Tie has over 70 offspring and Jan has lost count of great grandchildren, not bad for a 21 year old. We at IPtHA would like to congratulate both Jan and Black Tie on their success.

Hey Youth!!

Come on Youth lets make it a fun 2011 Indiana Pinto Show Season!

HERE'S HOPING

A SPECIAL PONY

1977 ERIC + KURT

1979 KURT

1982 ERIC

1989 JOSH

1997 BRITTANY

2002 NATTALEE

When I was asked to be the first to write about a special pony, I thought where do I start. Well why not the very beginning.

In 1977, Eric and I went to check on a bigger pony for Kurt, as he was getting to big to ride the one we had.

Kurt was in school the day we went, Eric was 4 years old.

A friend had this buckskin/white tobiano pony mare, but didn't have a small saddle, she seemed to be very gentle, so we put Eric on her with the big saddle. He proved to us that she was just what we needed.

She was already registered in Pinto and named "Here's Hoping".

The friend said we could buy her if we would pay the past due board bill. So that is how we became the owners of Hope.

Kurt showed her 4H, Pinto shows also at the National shows.

That team won several year end awards and championships.

Eric rode a pony gelding and the boys competed together in the Walk/Trot division. When Kurt became to big for Hope and we bought a horse for him, Eric started showing Hope, winning in 4-H and pinto shows and championships and yearend awards. The boys enjoyed competing in the barrels with the pony winning more times than the horse.

Hope taught the boys their riding skills and she took care of them in and out of the arena.

Instead of retiring Hope, when Eric purchased a horse, she became my nephew, Josh Meek's, ride. Josh showed 4H and pinto shows. Josh also showed at the Nationals, winning championships and pony of the year awards.

Josh and great nephew, John Runion showed Hope in leadline.

Later years, great niece Rachel Runion also competed in leadline.

Over the years there were several friends that rode Hope in leadline and walk/trot classes, to many to name all of them.

The few I am mentioning are true family members, cause as we all know Pinto is a family organization.

1993, Granddaughter, Brittany was born and as soon as she was big enough to sit on a horse, Hope became her love.

She would ask to spend weekends at the nouse so sne could ride.

Hope was a perfect babysitter as well as a teacher of riding skills.

Brittany started in leadline, moving on to Walk/Trot as sister Nattalee started riding in leadline classes. The girl's love for the pony was their way of knowing me from the other 4 grandmas, my name became "Grandma Hope".

Hope became sick and we thought time was coming to an end, but the girls played with her and gave her extra love and she survived 4 more years. Going to greener pastures Sept 16, 2003, and laid to rest under the apple tree at the age of 34.

26 years of a true love affair for the whole Duncan/Runion family.

Let's hear from others and their love of a pinto horse or pony.

ULTIMATE SWEET STAR" PtHA #140802

On March 01, 2011 Stacy Terhune came home to find her new Pinto Ultimate Sweet Star, better known as Dexter, with a broken leg. Sadly, he had to be put down. Dexter would have been a year old on March 30, 2011.

Stacy and her husband, Bill, named him Ultimate Sweet Star because he was so sweet. They picked him up on the day he was weaned so Dexter was quick to adopt them as his new family. He also had two buddy horses that took good care of him in his pasture.

Dexter loved to load in his trailer and pretend like he was going to the show while eating a little snack. Stacy had already done all of the paperwork and had even reserved a number for the two of them. Dexter was her first Pinto and they were looking forward to a fun show season with Indiana Pinto.

Dexter will be missed by all that knew him, but his memory will live on in their hearts.
