Happy almost show season!!! NOW if mother nature would get on track, we could all be ready to soak up the summer show season!! I hope everyone had a restful winter and spring. I have enjoyed seeing everyone's posts of getting out in the barn, riding, driving, new horses, and of course all these new babies!!!! I would also like to send a congratulations to everyone on their successes at this year's convention. It always makes Indiana proud seeing so many Indiana members and people who show with us making such an impact on a National level (both inside and outside of the showing).

If you have never shown pinto before, I highly recommend you check us out and join us! We truly are a family club that has a good time together!!! We have tons of opportunities for youth, Novice, Amateurs, professionals and of course all shapes and sizes of your minis, ponies, and horses!! Please take a second and check out our website: <http://indianapinto.com/>. Jamie does a great job of making sure all of our information is on the site and if you can't find what you are looking for please feel free to contact myself or any of our board members and we will try to point you in the right direction. Did you know every horse can qualify for some type of pinto papers??? We also can get you registered right at the show!! You can also follow us on Facebook and of course make sure you stop by our booth at the Hoosier Horse Fair the first weekend in May!

With that said here are some of our important dates for this year:

- June 15 - Indiana Pinto Poker Ride, Salamonie Reservoir - Lost Bridge West
- August 3-4 - Jubilee, New Castle, IN
- September 7-8 - Indiana Hoosier Classic, New Castle, IN
- October 5-6 - Indiana Show, New Castle, IN

We hope both new and old members can join us for some or all of these events. We do offer weekend high point prizes as well of end of the year prizes.

So happy spring training (mixed with a little winter) and tack cleaning! We hope to see all of you at some of our events!

Hey Youth!!

Calling all youth 18 and under to come join the Indiana Pinto fun!

Come join us for a year of fun! We have fun games after the last class on Saturdays (actually open to anyone) to relax and let loose. We have fundraisers at the shows to get some prizes for the end of the year Youth members that showed their horses throughout the year . We also like to hang out at the trailers, relaxing and enjoying a bonfire after a long day of showing.

Sign up for an Indiana Pinto membership and year-end high point for some great end-of-year awards or “showbucks” that you can use for the next year!

The Pinto Horse Association of America (PtHA) offers competition to Youth of all ages and experience levels. The Pinto World Championship Horse Show and Color Breed Congress bring PtHA Youth members together from all over the world.

While competing in PtHA approved shows, members can earn points that enable Youth to win awards that include Register of Merit, Register of Excellence, Legion of Merit, Supreme Champion and Superior Performance. Each year, Youth and their Pintos compete against their peers for national awards like Pinto of the Year, Top 10, Zone Top Five, Challenge 20 and overall High Point.

Indiana Pinto also has a Youth Memorial Award and a Sportsmanship award, awarded to a youth every year.

Youth Divisions

PtHA 2019 Convention

This year's convention was again held in Oklahoma City, OK at the Wyndham Garden Hotel. February 27 through March 2, 2019. Indiana representatives Joe & Barb Grissom, Wyneta Duncan and Annette Pitcher attended. Joe Grissom chaired the Long-Range Planning committee, PtHA Foundation and the Nominating Committee. Wyneta Duncan Chaired the Youth Committee, and sat on the Breed Council. Annette Pitcher is Sector 17 Board of Director, and on the Marketing/Membership Committee. This year I received my 20 year pin as serving on the Board of Directors. Traci Bousman and her husband Ron attended the awards banquet where she was awarded the ARC saddle for the Reserve Sr High Point Amateur and won a Pinto of the Year Award. Other Indiana members not attending but receiving an award were Dianna Moser with Amateur Champion, Open Champion, Zone High Point award and Pinto of the year award. Top Five Zone award winners were Kristen Freitag, Cheryl Kratzert Walls, Bobbieann Lawrence, Jill Duzan, Traci Bousman, and Dianna Moser. Penny Kleinschmidt won a Pinto of the Year award. We would like to congratulate all our members and friends from Michigan, Ohio and Tri-State who won awards to numerous to list.

Anyone who has never attended our convention say they are worth going to. You receive firsthand information on what the association is doing and have a chance to serve on committees and participate and be a part of your association.

Some important bits of information are:

New Website address, Pinto.net.

Awards, it was noted that $500,000 worth of awards are given out at the world show, and $130,000 at the Color Breed Congress. A mini cart is being added to the awards, and due to the fact that some winners have elected not to take the trailer due to the cost associated with winning the trailer, $500 has been added to the win to cover the cost of plates and taxes etc.

Score sheets from the World show and Color Breed Congress will be posted online through e-pinto.

There were 132 approved shows in 2018 which was up 20 percent. Out of the judges that applied for judges cards, and completed the approval process, 4 new judges were added.

At the color breed congress, the buckskins will not be showing this year and Mini's are being added to the showbill.

Youth lifetime membership fee will go up to 150.00, and if they decide to roll over to lifetime after they age out of youth, their youth fees will be applied to the cost.

At the end of the Event, Karen Craighead became our past president, and Jenny LaGrange was inducted as the 2019-2020 President of our association. I am very proud that I was inducted as the third committee member on to the executive committee. As I move up to the Executive Committee, and still have time to serve as a board of director, Jenny LaGrange appointed Wyneta Duncan to serve as Sector 17 Board of Director.

Respectfully Submitted

THE GREAT MEDICINE HAT HORSE

Magic or Simple Genetics

The “Great Medicine Hat” War Horse of all Indian Nations, destined for greatness in someway ... Is it ‘Magic or Simple Genetics?’ You make the call after you take the time to walk through this article. Analyzing this amazing rare color pattern that belongs only to this rare individual...

Keeping your minds eye open let us take a look at this combination of markings that makes this horse what he is ... Going back to the beginning of this story with the ‘True American’ the ‘American Indian’ beginning as anything that is worth saving is worth the path it traveled ...

Looking the “Medicine Hat Horse” square in the face he looks right through you deep into your soul with those ghostly blue eyes! His Medicine Hat war bonnet protects his head in battle while he carries the fiercest braves or dog soldiers into war ... the chest shield stretches wide across his deep chest to protect his brave heart ... side shields protect his fleet sides; while the rear shields by his tail protect him from sneak attacks! Standing there in his natural coloration of protection further enhancing this vision this fierce fighting Indian brave sitting atop this sacred horse would have adorned the white areas on him with magical symbols to increase his powerful abilities in battle!

Casting of: Streak N To The Top 16'2" 1,500 lbs Size 2 Shoe

Your heart, mind, and soul has just taken the time to walk the path of ‘Indian Belief’ held strong behind the legend of the Medicine Hat Horse ...

Above and beyond all belief, the Nations knew this legendary war horse was ‘Strong’ in his abilities to colorize all offspring or clone himself especially on the solid colored mustang mares running on the plains ... giving the tribes even more power through his strength of his ‘color prowess’ for the individual tribes.

Indian Mythology of the Medicine Hat horse is steeped largely in Native American tradition. The Medicine Hat horse has ‘Magical ability to protect his riders from injury or death in battle and are thought to have special abilities to warn their riders of danger in battle or on the hunt, finding game when all else failed ...

The tribes would capture Medicine Hat horses from each other that were strong color producers feeling they possessed strong magical strengths, in doing so they would steal the horses luck from that tribe.

This belief was the central part of a very complicated system the tribes shared about the horse and was much more than a good luck charm. The Medicine Hat horse was deemed so sacred by most tribes he was forbidden to be ridden by only the Chief or Medicine Man of the tribe ... Legend has it that the rider of the horse would never be harmed while he was on the back of such a magical, fierce protected fighting horse ...

We have established I am sure you agree there is certainly something extra special about these rare marked horses ... Is it that they just have such rare ‘striking’ unusual markings, are established color producers, or is it just something more? Ask anyone who has been touched by one of these “Medicine Hat Legends” in their lives ... They just might say something like “He was my million dollar horse who took care of my kids ... “ or he was my “Once in a lifetime horse that came along just when I needed him ... “, or “He was the One I went all the way to the World with ... “ or most often “He was the one who was the Great Producer in the breeding barn ... “ Whatever the reason this exceptional horse has touched so many in so many ways, he has truly influenced generations in mind, body, and soul in mysterious ways. I myself have been blessed to have had the care of two Medicine Hat horses in my life, Classy Motion and my current friend Streak N To The Top ... Classy Motion came to us already a Multiple PtHA Champion, aka: Spike. He was shown by our daughter Michelle 10-18 years. She learned to be ‘one with him, he sheltered her with love and care!’ Michelle thought just like her American Indian heritage, as long as she was on Spike the two of them could do anything, and they did; they amassed many Championships ... he gave her great confidence, they were a ‘team’ ... Michelle is now a Lawyer, lives in California...

We kept Spike, several years into his retirement until a trusted friend and fellow PTHA judge; Larry Cline needed him for his daughter Suzette, to show ... again Spike and Suzette returned to the show pen where that ‘team’ repeated the Indian Legend of the “Great Medicine Hat” adding more championships until the light grew dim in his sky eyes... After that I thought there would not be another ... along comes by a stroke of fate; Streak N To The Top

In the Winter months I interviewed for part time legal secretary jobs. I was on a job interview, during the interview for some strange reason we were all asked quite out of the blue “what we did in our spare time? Of course I said, horses ... right after the interview a young man, I had no idea who he was, walked up to me and handed me a business card ... started going on and on about his Uncles spotted stallion ... used to having this happen to me all the time I shoved the business card into my pocket and walked out of the place of business telling him I would take a look at it later. Later in the day I took the business card out and amazingly there standing on the card was a black and white Medicine Hat Stallion that appeared to have all the perfect markings ... this I looked at as fate. I immediately called the owner, Terry Adkins asking if I could come take a look; he seemed very proud of his young stallion and invited me to his farm. I asked him if he had bred any mares to him and he began telling me the story of how he had gotten him. He said he raised Angus Cattle, and that he was at a cattle sale, where they were selling Paint and Quarter Horses in an adjacent building to the cattle building, he went over out of curiosity to take a look. In a stall he saw the most strikingly marked young black and white painted colt with his coal black Quarter Horse momma. When the auction started he decided he wanted that colt there was just something different about him, some sort of mystery ... something great...he wanted him ... he admitted he had to go quite high to purchase the painted colt but he got it done and took him home ... Again I asked him if he had bred any mares to him, at that time he told me he bought 4 average Quarter Horse mares all bay; each and every one of them had a clone of the great stallion! He admitted he was shocked! Sure enough when I arrived at the farm in the pasture there were the four mares with their medicine hat babies all black and white! Upon driving up to the barn Terry took me into the barn when he brought out “Midnight Streaker” leading him around in a rope halter like he was a pet pony ... he was an outstanding example of a black and white Medicine Hat stallion with all the correct markings including sky eyes ... As soon as I saw him I could see he was definitely no mistake and had been a carefully planned project, I asked for his HYPP papers from the University of Davis as he appeared to be modern day halter horse bred. Terry had no idea what I was talking about but rummaged around in his office desk until he came up with a negative/negative set of papers on him. I immediately decided to select a solid bay colored/buckskin bred AQHA Foundation bred mare to cross on Streaker ... now all I had to do was to sit back and wait for the ‘Vision of the American Indian’ to spin its magic, and give me that “Black and White Medicine Hat baby in the Spring! We crossed that good foundation AQHA mare on Streaker and just like ‘Magic’ she gave me aka: “Pop” a perfectly marked black and white colt with a sky lightning bolt eye, clone of his father!

Pop leading his solid AQHA momma for a stroll. Pop was later found to be easily educated to 'High School Trick Horse' by Daniel Wallen - The Famous Wallen Family

In today's standards color is definitely a #1 requirement of all color based registries ... all Color Breed Registration Rule Books have color regulations ... knowing the Medicine Hat horse produces color whether you believe it to be legend, something magical, or just simple genetics; he is a color producer ... what shall become of a Color Breed Registration without Color? The Pinto Horse Association registers the Medicine Hat horse as a Tovero; a combination of both major color patterns Overo and Tobiano. He is a combination of both, but clearly does not completely fit into either category, therefore; shall we say we have a combination of both Overo and Tobiano characteristics with large white areas suggesting definitely more Albino characteristics with his sky eyes?

On a Final thought: Has this incredible treasure been overlooked by our modern fast paced society, or simply swept away by modern ways of thinking ... to fast to admire him for simply what he is. Not to take the time to step back in time ... to simply know what to do with it when you finally find it? It is time for you to make the call before it is to late ... Is this great horse, the "Rare Medicine Hat" the horse marked by the 'Original American' the 'American Indians' destined for greatness in the beginning been left behind ... or recognized for what he actually is "The King of Color?" or simply marked as a 'genetic freak' to be tucked away marked as having 'to much color' and forgotten about?

Have we forgotten all about what the Color Breeds are all about?

You make the call ... You be the Judge?

May The Great Spirit Always Bless You...

ARE YOU AND YOUR TRAILER READY TO TRAVEL??

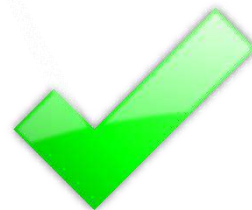

When you are on the road with your trailer, you not only have the responsibility of keeping your horse safe, you also have the responsibility to yourself, whoever is riding with you, and to all the other drivers out there on the road. You certainly don't want to be responsible for causing an accident that may result in injury or death to your horse or someone else. By making the right choices, you can maximize your safety and minimize your chances of an accident. Here are a few reminders on trailer safety:

- Make sure the ball on the tow vehicle is the correct size for the trailer!
- Check over your hitch, coupler, breakaway brake battery, and safety chains. Make sure all are hooked up and latched properly. Make sure all lights and the brakes are working properly before you load the horses.
- Check tire pressure in the tires on the tow vehicle and the trailer. Improper tire pressure is one of the most common reasons for trailer sway. A suggestion is to have your tires filled with nitrogen instead of just air. This will help prevent expansion as the tire warms up.
- Check tire condition, especially if the trailer has been sitting for a while. Make sure you have the correct tire iron to change the tire. The spare tire nut may be a different size than the actual wheels so double check you have all sizes necessary.
- Check lug nuts on the wheels. Wheel nuts and bolts should be tightened before first road use on a trailer and after each wheel removal. Check often!
- Check the inside of the trailer for bees and wasp nests.
- When the horses are loaded make sure all doors are latched properly, and horses are tied.
- Drive down the driveway and before you drive onto the road, get out and check your hitch assembly again. Take a look at the horses too, to make sure they're good to go.
- If you happen to stop somewhere where the rig has been left unattended, check everything all over again. Someone may have been tampering with the trailer or the horses.

QUICK REFERENCE

SAFTEY POINT	WHAT TO DO
TIRES	Check pressure, and look for signs of wear in truck, trailer, and spare tires
WHEELS	Make sure lug nuts are tight on all wheels
HITCH	Look for loose bolts, hairline cracks, and other signs of wear. Check for proper hookup. (In conventional trailers, the socket should be seated on the ball and locked in place.)
SAFETY CHAINS	Make sure chains are crossed and hooked to vehicle frame (not bumper).
BREAKAWAY	Check cable length. It should be shorter than your safety chains, but not so short that it'll break free when you make a tight brake cable turn. Weave the cable through a link of one chain, so it won't snag and pull free. Make sure coupler is fully plugged in.
TRUCK	Check fluid levels and fill fuel tanks
